4. General Integrity

- a. Members are committed to performing their functions with integrity, accountability and transparency.
- b. Members are responsible for complying with all applicable legislation, by-laws and policies that pertain to their positions as an elected official.
- c. Members recognize that the public has the right to open government and transparent decision-making.
- d. Members shall at all times serve and be seen to serve the interests of their constituents and the Municipality in a conscientious and diligent manner and shall approach decision-making with an open mind.
- e. Members will conduct their dealings with each other in ways that maintain public confidence in the position to which they have been elected or appointed.
- f. Members will be open and honest, focus on issues rather than personalities, and avoid aggressive, offensive or abusive conduct.
- g. Members shall refrain from making disparaging remarks about other members of Council, staff, members of the public, or Council’s decisions.
- h. Members shall avoid the improper use of the influence of their office and shall avoid pecuniary conflicts of interest, both direct and indirect, in accordance with and as defined by the Municipal Conflict of Interest Act and non-pecuniary conflicts of interest.
- i. Members shall not extend in the discharge of their official duties preferential treatment to any individual or organization if a reasonably well-informed person would conclude that the preferential treatment was solely for the purpose of advancing a private or personal interest.
- j. For greater clarity, this Code does not prohibit members from properly using their influence on behalf of constituents.

- k. In accordance with the Municipal Act and the Municipal Conflict of Interest Act, every member shall exercise his or her power and discharge his or her official duties in accordance with the following guiding principles:
 - i) Seek to advance the common good of the Municipality;
 - ii) Exercise care, diligence and skill that a reasonable person would exercise in similar circumstances;
 - iii) Exercise his or her powers only for the purposes for which they were intended; and,
 - iv) Truly, faithfully and impartially exercise his or her office to the best of his or her knowledge and ability.

5. Conduct at Council and Committee Meetings

Members shall conduct themselves with decorum at all Council and Committee meetings in accordance with the provisions of the Municipality's Procedure By-law.

6. Discrimination and Harassment

All members have a duty to treat members of the public, one another, and staff with respect and without abuse, bullying or intimidation, and to ensure that the work environment is free from discrimination and harassment. No member shall in a course of vexatious comment or conduct against a worker in a workplace that is known or ought to be known to be unwelcome or any other member, any staff, or any member of the public.

7. Conduct Respecting Staff

- a. Members shall acknowledge the fact that staff work for the Municipality as a body corporate and are charged with making recommendations that reflect their professional expertise and corporate objectives. Council has the authority to approve budget, policy, governance, and other such matters.
- b. Under the direction of the Chief Administrative Officer, Municipal staff serves Council as a whole and the combined interests of all members as evidenced through the decisions of Council as recorded in the minutes and resolutions.
- c. Members shall acknowledge and respect the fact that staff carry out directions of Council as a whole and administer the policies of the Municipality, and are required to do so without any undue influence from any individual member or group of members.
- d. Members shall refrain from publicly criticizing individual members of staff in a way that casts aspersions on their professional competence and credibility. The role of staff is to provide advice and services based on political neutrality, objectivity and professional judgement which may not necessarily reflect the opinion or position of a single member of Council.
- e. Members of Council have no individual capacity to direct staff to perform specific functions. Inquiries of staff from members of Council should be directed to the Chief Administrative Officer or the appropriate Manager.

- f. The Municipal Act sets out the roles of members of Council and the municipal administration, including specific roles for statutory/officers such as the Chief Administrative Officer, Clerk, Treasurer and the Integrity Commissioner.
- g. Members of Council are expected to:
 - i) Represent the public and to consider the well-being and interests of the Municipality;
 - ii) Develop and evaluate policies and programs of the Municipality;
 - iii) Determine which services the Municipality provides;
 - iv) Ensure the administrative policies, practices and procedures and controllership policies, practices and procedures are in place to implement the decisions of Council;
 - v) Ensure the accountability and transparency of the operations of the Municipality, including the activities of the senior management of the Municipality;
 - vi) Maintain the financial integrity of the Municipality; and
 - vii) Carry out the duties of Council under the Municipal Act or any other Act.
- h. Municipal staff are expected to:
 - i.) Implement Council's decisions and establish administrative practices and procedures to carry out Council's decisions;
 - ii.) Undertake research and provide advice to Council on the policies and programs of the Municipality; and,
 - iii.) Carry out other duties required under the Municipal Act or any Act and other duties assigned by the Municipality.
- i. Members shall be respectful of the role of staff to provide advice based on political neutrality, professional judgement and objectivity.
- j. Members shall not:
 - i.) Maliciously or falsely injure the professional or ethical reputation, or the prospects or practice of staff;
 - ii.) Compel staff to engage in partisan political activities or be subjected to threats or discrimination for refusing to engage in such activities; or
 - iii.) Use, or attempt to use, their authority or influence for the purpose of intimidating, threatening, coercing, commanding or influencing any staff member with the intent of interfering in staff's duties.

8. Conduct Respecting Fellow Council Members

Council Members will establish a working relationship with fellow members that recognizes and respects the diversity of opinion and achieves the best possible outcomes for the community.

Members will:

- a. honour the role of the chair in maintaining order at the table;
- b. be respectful that other Council members (as applicable) have taken the same Oath of Office as they have, and have the right to a different point of view providing it is appropriately and responsibly shared;
- c. not publicly speak disrespectfully, disparagingly or negatively about a fellow Member in a way that casts aspersions on their professional or personal competence and credibility;
- d. demonstrate a cooperative and effective problem solving approach;
- e. practice civility and decorum in discussions and debate

9. Improper Use of Influence

- a. As elected officials, members are expected to perform the duties of their office with integrity, accountability and transparency.
- b. Members should not use the status of their position to influence the decision of another individual to the private advantage of oneself, one's parents, children, spouse, staff members, friends, business or other associates.
- c. In the same manner and as outlined in the Provincial Offences Act, members shall not attempt to influence or interfere, either directly or indirectly, financially, politically or otherwise with employees, officers or other persons performing duties under the Provincial Offences Act.

10. Use of Municipal Property and Resources

- a. Members have access to municipal resources such as property, equipment, services, staff and supplies, in order to fulfill their roles as elected representatives.
- b. No member shall use, or permit the use of Municipal property, equipment, services, staff or other resources (such as the Municipal website) for any activity other than purposes connected with the discharge of Council duties or Council business.
- c. No member shall obtain financial gain from the use or sale of Municipally-developed intellectual property, computer programs, technological innovations, or other kinds of property, while they are an elected official or thereafter.
- d. No member shall use information gained in the execution of his or her duties that is not available to the general public, for any purposes other than his or her official duties.

11. Conduct Respecting Lobbying

Members, as elected representatives, are often approached by various individuals attempting to influence Council decisions. While lobbying is an acceptable practice, Council members must be aware that it is their responsibility to make decisions based on impartial and objective assessment of each situation, free from the influence of groups, agencies, individuals, associations, or likewise for approval or decision-making.

12. Confidential Information

- a. All information, documentation or deliberation received, reviewed or taken in closed session of Council (and its Committees as applicable) are confidential.
- b. Members shall not disclose or release by any means to any member of the public either in verbal or written form any personal and confidential information or material acquired by virtue of their office, except when required by law to do so. Where a matter has been discussed in a closed meeting and the information remains confidential, Members shall not disclose the content of the matter or the substance of deliberations of the closed meeting.
- c. Requests for confidential information should be referred to appropriate staff to be addressed as either an informal request for access to municipal records or as a formal request under the Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

13. Gifts, Benefits and Hospitality

- a. Members are expected to represent the public and the interests of the Municipality, and to do so with impartiality and objectivity. The acceptance of a gift, benefit or hospitality can imply favoritism, bias, or influence on the part of the member. At times, the acceptance of a gift, benefit or hospitality occurs as part of the social protocol or community events linked to the duties of an elected official and their representative role of the Municipality.
- b. Members shall not accept gifts that would, to a reasonable member of the public, appear to be in gratitude for influence, to induce influence or otherwise to go beyond the necessary and appropriate public functions involved. For these purposes, a gift, benefit or hospitality provided with the member's knowledge to a member's spouse, child or parent that is connected directly or indirectly to the performance of the member's duties is deemed to be a gift to that member.
- c. Members are not precluded from accepting:
 - i.) Personal gifts, benefits, rewards, commissions or advantages from any person or organization which are wholly unconnected with the performance of the member as an elected representative;
 - ii.) Political contributions that are otherwise offered, accepted and reported in accordance with applicable law;
 - iii.) Services provided without compensation by persons volunteering their time;
 - iv.) Invitations from charity or not-for-profit organizations to attend their events;
 - v.) Communication to the offices of a member, including subscriptions to newspapers and periodicals;
 - vi.) Gifts of a nominal value (e.g. baseball cap, t-shirt, book, etc.);

- vii.) Food and beverages at banquets, receptions, ceremonies or similar events;
 - viii.) A memento received by a member of Council at a function honouring the member;
 - ix.) A memento received as a result of being a speaker, participant or representative of the Municipality at an event;
 - x.) Gifts or benefits received as a result of social protocol, customs or social obligations that normally accompany the performance of official duties;
 - xi.) Food, lodging, transportation and entertainment provided by other levels of government or other local governments, boards or commissions; and,
 - xii.) Sponsorships and donations for community events organized or run by a member or a third party on behalf of a member.
- d. Those gifts received by members which have significance or historical value for the Municipality of Dysart et al shall be left with the Municipality of Dysart et al when the member ceases to hold office.
- e. It is recognized that the extension and acceptance of forms of hospitality (including invitations to events, outings, engagements, performances, etc.) is within the activity suite of members. Any hospitality should fall within the following parameters:
- i. Members do not allow themselves to reach a position whereby they might be, or deemed by others to have been, influenced in making a decision as a consequence of the offering or acceptance of such hospitality;
 - ii. It serves a legitimate business purpose related to the responsibilities of the member;
 - iii. The person extending the invitation or a representative of the organization, is in attendance; and,
 - iv. The value and frequency is reasonable.
- f. Members shall return any gifts or benefits or not accept hospitality, which does not comply with these guidelines, along with an explanation of why the gifts, benefits, or hospitality cannot be accepted.

14. Social Media

- a. The Municipality recognizes that social media applications are widely being utilized as communication tools with the potential to provide the public with timely information. Such information is necessary for all who live, work and play in the Municipality of Dysart et al and the Municipality is committed to disseminating information in a range of formats to reach a variety of audiences.

- b. Council Members who choose to participate in social media communications regarding municipal business activities will conduct themselves in accordance with the following:
 - i. Use of a Council Member's municipal email address, communicating in an official capacity, or discussing municipal business on social media sites constitutes conducting municipal business;
 - ii. Council Members will conduct themselves in a positive, professional, honest, ethical and fair manner at all times and in accordance with this policy and all related policies in the best interest of the Corporation;
 - iii. The Municipality of Dysart et al website (www.dysartetal.ca) will remain the Municipality's primary and predominant internet presence for in-depth information, forms and online documents. Municipal social media sites used will direct visitors back to the appropriate section of the website where appropriate.
- c. Council Members will refrain from posting the following to their personal social media pages:
 - i. Content which violates the Criminal Code of Canada or the Ontario Human Rights Code;
 - ii. Proprietary and confidential municipal information;
 - iii. Discriminatory, disrespectful, disparaging, negative statements involving or against the Municipality, a staff member, a member of the public or any member of Council;
 - iv. Content which violates any of the Municipality's policies;
 - v. The Municipality's logo, trademark or graphics without the Municipality's prior written consent. (sharing posts or information from Municipal social media sites and websites is permitted.)
 - vi. Comments or information that do not support the decisions of Council.

15. Election-Related Activity

- a. Members are required to conduct themselves in accordance with the Municipal Elections Act. The use of municipal resources, both actual municipal property and staff time, for election-related activity is strictly prohibited. The prohibition applies to both the promotion and opposition to the candidacy of a person for elected office. Election-related activity applies not only to a member's personal campaign for office, but also other campaigns for municipal, provincial and federal office.

16. Compliance with the Code of Conduct

- a. Members are expected to adhere to the provisions of the Code of Conduct.
- b. Where Council has received a report by its Integrity Commissioner that in their opinion there has been a violation of the Code of Conduct, the Municipal Act, 2001 provides Council with the authority to impose the following sanctions:

- i. A reprimand; and
- ii. Suspension of the remuneration paid to the member in respect of his or her services as a member of Council or a local board, as the case may be, for a period of up to 90 days.

17. Enforcement of the Code of Conduct – Integrity Commissioner

- a. The Council shall appoint an Integrity Commissioner to investigate alleged breaches of this Code (or any applicable corporate policy).
- b. Any person, including members of the public, Municipal employees and members of Council, who has reasonable grounds to believe that a member has breached a provision of the Code or applicable corporate policy may proceed with a complaint. Complaints cannot be made by groups, organizations or corporations.
- c. The alleged violation shall have taken place within sixty (60) days of filing the complaint with the Integrity Commissioner.
- d. A complainant may wish to pursue the informal complaint process as established by this Code, but is not required to prior to proceeding with the formal complaint process set out in this Code.
- e. No member shall obstruct the Integrity Commissioner in the carrying out of his or her responsibilities.
- f. Any reprisal or threat of reprisal against a complainant or anyone for providing relevant information to the Integrity Commissioner is prohibited.

18. Other Duties of the Integrity Commissioner

- a. In addition to conducting investigations regarding alleged breaches of the Code of Conduct and other related policies adopted by Council, the Integrity Commissioner shall have the following responsibilities:
 - i. Provide information to Council as to their obligations under the Code.
 - ii. Provide advice to individual members regarding specific situations as they relate to the application of the Code.
 - iii. Provide advice to Council on other policies and procedures that relate to the ethical behavior of members.
 - iv. Provide general advice on conflict of interest issues, noting that this advice may not be used in defense of an allegation related to a conflict of interest.
 - v. Provide information to the public regarding the Code and the obligations of members under the Code.
 - vi. Provide an annual report to Council on activities of the Integrity Commissioner.
- b. The Integrity Commissioner shall provide his or her advice in writing to the member. Any written advice given by the Integrity Commissioner to a member, as it relates to the Code, binds the Integrity Commissioner in any subsequent consideration of the member's conduct in the same matter provided the relevant facts known to the member were disclosed to the Integrity Commissioner.

- c. Any written requests for advice and responses to such requests are covered under the Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.
- d. The Integrity Commissioner's annual report to Council shall include information on the nature and volume of activity for the past year and provide anonymized examples with respect to the advice provided and the nature of complaints received and responded to.
- e. The annual report of the Integrity Commissioner shall be provided to Council for information. The report is a public document.
- f. The Integrity Commissioner shall file their annual report no later than six months after his or her initial appointment and annually thereafter.

19. Procedure – Informal Complaint (Optional)

Any individual who has identified or witnessed behavior or activity by a member that appears to be in contravention of the Code may address their concerns as follows:

- a. Advise the offending member directly that their behavior or activity contravenes the Code of Conduct.
- b. Encourage the offending member to stop the prohibited behavior or activity.
- c. If there is not resolution from direct communication, the Mayor may be asked to intervene.
- d. Keep a written record of the incident(s), including dates, times, locations, other persons present and any other relevant information, including steps taken to resolve the matter.
- e. If not satisfied with the response through the informal process, an individual may proceed with a formal complaint through the Integrity Commissioner as outlined in the Formal Complaint Procedure.

20. Procedure – Formal Complaint

Any individual who has identified or witnessed behavior or activity by a member that appears to be in contravention of the Code may address their concerns through the formal complaint process as follows:

- a. A complaint shall be made in writing and shall be sent directly to the Integrity Commissioner by mail, e-mail, fax or courier.
- b. A complaint must be signed and dated by the complainant who shall be an identifiable individual (complaints may not be submitted by any group, organization or corporation).
- c. All formal complaints must include an explanation as to why the issue raised may be a contravention of the Code and any evidence in support of the allegation must be included.

- d. Any witnesses in support of the allegation must be identified.
- e. The complaint must include the name of the member alleged to have breached the Code, the section of the Code allegedly contravened, the date, time and location of the alleged contravention and any other relevant information.
- f. The complaint shall be filed directly with the Integrity Commissioner who shall confirm that the information is complete to their satisfaction. The Integrity Commissioner will determine whether the matter is, on its face, a complaint with respect to non-compliance with the Code and not covered by other legislation or policies.
- g. The Integrity Commissioner may request additional information from the complainant.
- h. The alleged violation shall have taken place within sixty (60) days of filing the complaint with the Integrity Commissioner.

21. Complaint – Municipal Conflict of Interest Act (MCIA)

If filed with the Integrity Commissioner after March 1, 2019, an application to the Integrity Commissioner to inquire into an alleged contravention of Sections 5, 5.1 or 5.2 of the Municipal Conflict of Interest Act (“MCIA”) may be made by an elector as defined in Section 1 of the MCIA or by a person demonstrably acting in the public interest, as follows:

- a. an application shall be made in writing and shall be sent directly to the Integrity Commissioner by mail, e-mail, fax or courier;
- b. an application must be signed and dated by the complainant who shall be an identifiable individual (complaints may not be submitted by any group, organization or corporation);

An application shall include:

- i. an explanation, with specific reference to sections of the MCIA, as to why the issue raised is alleged to be a contravention of the Act;
- ii. any evidence in support of the allegation; and
- iii. any witnesses in support of the allegation must be identified; and
- iv. a statutory declaration attesting to the fact that the applicant became aware of the alleged contravention not more than six weeks before the date of application in accordance with Section 223.4.1(5) & (6) of the Municipal Act, as amended.
- v. an application may only be made six weeks after the applicant became aware of the alleged contravention and otherwise in compliance with Section 223.4.1(5) & (6) of the Municipal Act, as amended.

22. Refusal to Conduct Investigation

- a. If the Integrity Commissioner is of the opinion that the referral of a matter to him or her is frivolous, vexatious or not made in good faith or that there are no grounds or insufficient grounds for an investigation, the Integrity Commissioner shall not conduct an investigation, or, where that becomes apparent in the course of an investigation, terminate the investigation.

- b. Other than in exceptional circumstances, the Integrity Commissioner will not report to Council on any complaint described above, except as part of an annual or other periodic report.

23. Response to Complaint Outside of the Jurisdiction of the Integrity Commissioner

- a. If the complaint received by the Integrity Commissioner is deemed not to be a complaint with respect to non-compliance with the Code, or other corporate policy applying to the members or compliance with the MCI, the Integrity Commissioner shall advise the complainant in writing, as follows:
 - i. Criminal Matter – if the complaint is an allegation of a criminal nature consistent with the Criminal Code of Canada, the complainant shall be advised that pursuit of such an allegation must be made through the appropriate police service.
 - ii. Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy – if the complaint is more appropriately addressed under the Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, the complainant shall be referred to the Clerk to have the matter reviewed under that Act.
 - iii. Municipal Elections Act – if the complaint relates to the enforcement of the Municipal Elections Act, the complainant shall be referred to the Compliance Audit Process if the matter relates to campaign finances or to such other avenues of investigation as dictated by that Act.
- b. If the matter is covered by other Municipality policies or legislation, the complainant will be advised and directed to proceed in a manner that is considered appropriate by the Integrity Commissioner.

24. Election Blackout Period

- a. No investigation shall be commenced or continued, nor shall the Integrity Commissioner report to Council respecting an investigation, within the election period between nomination day and six weeks after voting day, except as provided in s. 223.4 and 223.4.1 of the Municipal Act.

25. Policy Review Procedure

All members of Council will sign a Code of Conduct Policy Acknowledgement Statement upon the passing of this Policy.

All members of Council will sign a Code of Conduct Policy Acknowledgement Statement each time there is an amendment to the Policy.

All members of Council will sign a Code of Conduct Policy Acknowledgement Statement at the beginning of each term of Council.

The Code of Conduct will be reviewed by Council, within one year of the municipal election.
